BCL calls off strike

Our Correspondent

SYLHET, June 5:—Following an assurance regarding the formal withdrawal of a show cause notice on 22 leaders and workers, Bangladesh Chhatra League (BCL-SP) has called off the strike programme at Hazrat Shah Jalal University of Science and Technology today.

The show cause notice was served on BCL leaders and workers and seven JCD activists by the probe body of the university on charges of various incidents that kept the university closed for days together.

Meanwhile, the on-going examinations under the university have been declared postponed.

The university authority however informed the reporters of local and national dailies today through a Press release that the examinations scheduled to be held from June 7 will commence as usual. Situation in the university returned to normalcy following the withdrawal of the strike programme of BCL (S-P) the student wing of the ruling party—Bangladesh Awami League.
