Our Correspondent

ISLAMIC UNIVERSITY (Kush-tia), May 14:—The Pro-BNP Jatiyatabadi Chhatra Dal (JCD) observed a day-long strike in the varsity today demanding punishment to those who are responsible for attacking its two activists yesterday.

The two JCD activists—Amin and Liton were seriously injured in a quarrel with their room mates Jaber, allegedly a Shibir activist on Tuesday in room no. 102 of Saddam Hossain Hall.

The administrative activities of the university came to a halt as officers and employees did not attend the office during the strike hours. University Central Library, Seminar Room and Departmental offices remained closed. The attendance of the students was thin.

The JCD activists brought out a procession and held a rally in support of the strike programme on the campus.

On the otherhand, Pro Awami League Bangladesh Chhatra League (S-P) also brought out a procession demanding resignation of the Provost of Saddam Hussain Hall.
