Students ransack shops in front of DMCH

By A Staff Reporter

A section of unruly students of Dhaka University on Tuesday afternoon beat up some employees of Dhaka Medical College Hospital (DMCH) and ransacked a number of make-shift shops in front of the hospital.

According to witnesses, a group of students of DU came to visit a student of the DU admitted to Ward No: 30 but the guard on duty at gate No: 2 prevented them from entering the hospital. At one stage heated words were exchanged, the medical employees manhandled some students who then chased the employees.

Later, students again went in a body to DMCH and ransacked some make-shift
