Rajbari primary students yet to get complete set of books

From Our Correspondent

RAJBARI, Jan. 10:—A total of 2,29,547 pieces of books out of 3,99,141 sanctioned has been received by the District Primary Education Office upto December 14 for distribution among 1,69,074 students both boys and girls reading in 414 primary schools of the district.

A source of the District Primary Education Office said that if the rest 1,06,594 pieces of sanctioned books reach the office in a week, the office would be able to send these books to respective schools in the district before the commencement of the next academic session beginning from January.

Some guardians of the primary students from their past experiences apprehend that their wards will not get their books in time.

The concerned authority is requested to exert allout efforts so that the students reading in primary schools across the district get their complete set of books in time.

No passenger shed

All the buses stop at Goalundo crossing point but the bus stand has no passengers shed. During the rainy season, the sufferings of the passengers know no bounds.

The absence of toilets at the bus stand poses a problem to the passengers. The female passengers are the worst sufferers.

Absence of a waiting shed at Khankhanapur bus stand causes immense sufferings to the travelling passengers. It is an important crossing point of Rajbari-Kushtia, Rajbari-Faridpur, Khulna-Doulatdia and Doulatdia-Barisal highways.

Thousands of people come everyday to this bus stand to go to different destinations including Dhaka, Faridpur, Barisal, Khulna and Jessore.

Construct Padma bridge

The Padma Bridge Implementation Committee, Rajbari district unit, held a rally at the Deputy Commissioner's office premises recently. Advocate Chitta Ranjan Guha, President of the local unit addressed the rally.

After the rally, a memorandum was submitted to the Deputy Commissioner demanding construction of the Padma bridge at Doulatdiaghata point and re-introduction of the recently suspended railway services in the Rajbari-Faridpur, Rajbari-Bhatiapara and Titumir Express in Rajbari-Khulna lines.

A resolution was adopted in the rally to launch a greater movement including mass hunger strike at the Deputy Commissioner's office premises after the Holy Ramadan.

Warm clothes distribution

The Rajbari Manob Unnayan Sangstha, a leading socio-cultural organisation, distributed winter clothes including blankets, lungis, napkins and other playing materials among the inmates of the Muslim orphanages at Belgachi under Rajbari district recently.

Md. Amirul Karim, Deputy Commissioner, Rajbari, was present on the occasion as chief guest and distributed the clothes among the orphans.

A discussion meeting was held on the occasion on the significance of the Holy Ramadan. Md. Abdus Samad, TNO, Rajbari Sadar, Md. Aminuddin Khan Principal, Adarsha Mohila College, Prof. Akbar Ali Miah, ex-Vice-Principal Rajbari Government College, Al-Haj Shafiqur Rahman Chowdhury and Deputy Director, Islamic Foundation Rajbari took part in the discussion. The meeting was followed by an Iftar party.
