JU admission test results today

SAVAR, July 29: The admission test results of the first year honours for the session 1999-2000 of Jahangirnagar University (JU) will be published tomorrow, university sources said, reports BSS.

This year a total of 745 students — 265 females and 480 males — will be enrolled in 24 departments of the university from merit list.

Some 80 students will be registered under the reserved quotas for the freedom fighters' children, players, tribals and cultural activists. Some unspecified number of students will also be enrolled under the teachers' and employees' children quota.

The admission procedure from the merit list will begin on August 6 and end on August 20, while the admission from the waiting list will go on from August 24 till September 7, the sources added.

The results will be published in some national dailies. Classes are expected to begin sometime in early November.
