

তারিখ ... ২৪/৩/৭৯ ...
পৃষ্ঠা ... ৩ ... কলাম ... ৫ ...

121

Emadul Huq dead

Mr. Emadul Huq, a noted educationist of the country, an author of several books and an illustrious headmaster during the undivided Bengal expired last evening (Friday) at 6 p.m. at 5, New Eskaton, Dacca due to heart failure. Mr Huq who was 84, had been ailing for some time.

Establishment of Mathbaria K.M. Latif Institution is one of his great achievements. A member of All India Education Conference, the deceased was the Vice-President of All Bengal Teachers' Association. He was also a member of the then East Pakistan School Text Book Board. A noted philanthropist, Mr. Huq was the Chairman of Mathbaria Central Cooperative Bank and founder of Mathbaria Girls High School.

The deceased left behind five sons and four daughters. Syed Nazmul Huq a renowned journalist who was brutally killed by Al-Badr extremists during the War of Liberation was his fourth son.

His Namaj-e-Janaza will be held today (Saturday) at Baitul Mukarram after Joir prayer. He will be buried at Sana ni graveyard.