Mokammel Haque joins C'wealth Secretariat

Mr. A. Mokammel Haque, a senior Bangladeshi official, has joined the Commonwealth Secretariat as the head of its Food Production and Rural Development Division.

Mr. Haque, who was the first Vice-Chairman of the Export Promotion Bureau (EPB), has joined as Director of the Division in the Commonwealth Secretariat. He left here on Sunday last for New Delhi where he would be a Member of the Commonwealth Officials team in the Asian Regional Commonwealth Heads of Government's meeting from September 4 to 8.

Youngest son of poet Al-Haj Mozammel Haque of Bhola, Barisal, Mr. Haque had a distinguished academic career. Mr. Haque also stood first in Civil and Foreign Affairs Examination and joined the erstwhile CSP cadre in 1960.

He has also secured distinction from the London School of Economics in a Post-Graduate Diploma Course on Development Administration in 1967.
