BOU to set up six schools

Bangladesh Open University is planning to set up six schools under its jurisdiction, reports UNB.

This was informed at the first meeting of the Board of Governors of BOU held at the campus Sunday with vice Chancellor Dr Shamsher Ali in the chair.

Of the six, three schools—the Open School, the School of Education and Management and the School of Social Science, Language and Women Studies—could be made functional for the time-being.

The meeting also approved temporarily the monogram of the university, said a press release of the university.

Dr. M Shamsher Ali, who is also the Chairman of the Board, apprised the meeting of development activities of the university.

Members of the Board former Minister Azizul Huq, Justice TH Khan, Harunur Rashid MP, Education Secretary Mohammed Irshadul Huq and Prof Iqbal Mahmud of BUET were present at the meeting.
