UNESCO Clubs hail PM

The National Association of UNESCO Clubs in Bangladesh on Saturday congratulated Prime Minister Sheikh Hasina for her winning the UNESCO Peace Award which had in fact enlightened the country's image abroad, reports BSS.

At a meeting in Dhaka on Saturday marking the 15th founding anniversary of the organization, the association leaders also expressed their gratefulness to the UNESCO authorities for the award and said it had glorified the Prime Minister of Bangladesh in the global arena.

Association leaders Prof. Md. Shamsul Huq, Sajedul Awal, Javed Chowdhury and Mohammad Sharif addressed the meeting held with its secretary general Mahbub Uddin Chowdhury in the chair.

They stressed the need for more cemented relationship between Bangladesh and the UNESCO in the years to come, an association Press release said.
