Complete strike in CU

Chittagong Office

CHITTAGONG, Oct. 28.—Complete strike was observed at Administrative Building in Chittagong University today on the second and last day of 48-hour long strike at the call given by the Islami Chhatra Shibir. Chittagong University unit. They also called a fresh round of a day-long hartal in Chittagong University tomorrow. The Shibir gave this strike call to press home their charter of demands which include removal of the present Vice Chancellor and expulsion of those responsible for the recent incident on the campus.

The work of the Administrative Building of the University was suspended during the period of strike.
