

30

English Alumni Assoc formed in CU

According to a press release English Alumni Association has been formed in the Chittagong University. Those who are interested to become the members of the said Association are requested to submit the following informations to the Chairman of English Department by November 30, 1992, says a Press release.

1. The names of Former Students of English Department of Chittagong University.
2. Name of father
3. Designation
4. Address
5. Present Profession with Address.
6. Session of Admission in English Department, Chittagong University.