CU Proctor resigns

CU Correspondent

CHITTAGONG, July 4:—The Proctor of Chittagong University Prof Abdul Gafur has stepped down from his post today.

But Prof. Gafur in his resignation letter has not given any reason for his resigning, University sources said.

With his resignation, the University of Chittagong got two Proctors changed just in a span of one month. Earlier, Dr Khan Tawhid Osman had quit the job of Proctor allegedly for his difference of opinions with the university authority.

However, Dr Gazi Saleh ^{and} din of Sociology Depahis ^{title} has been appointed the Proctor of Chittagong University.
