DU campus peaceful, classes held

By Our DU Correspondent

Barring stray incidents of firing and bomb blasts, the situation on Dhaka University campus remained comparatively peaceful on Sunday. Classes were held and the attendance of students was fairly good. Supporters of rival student organisations brought out separate processions and chanted slogans. There was no report of any clash.

Dhaka University Syndicate and the Educational Environment Council held separate meetings on the day to review the latest situation on the campus. Presided over by the Vice-Chancellor, the Syndicate meeting decided to take immediate steps against the trouble mongers after an enquiry into the incidents and identification of the real miscreants.

The Environment Council, under the chairmanship of the Pro Vice-Chancellor, however, failed to take any decision in its meeting on Sunday as Presidents of the rival student organisations present at the meeting exchanged hot words.

The Jatiyatabadi Chhatra Dal (JCD) is in the control of Mohsin, Surja Sen and Jasim Uddin Halls while Chhatra League (pre-JSD-Inu) is controlling S. M. Hall.

ANNUAL SESSION

Second meeting of the third annual session of the fourth Dhaka University Senate was held at the council room of the administrative building on Sunday with Prof. Abdul Mannan in the chair.
