

07 APR 1990
90

DU classes resume today

DHAKA, April 6. (BSS): All the classes of Dhaka University will resume tomorrow after 40 days of unscheduled closure.

The residential halls of the university reopened yesterday. The classes of different departments and institutes of the university will be held between 9-30 a.m. and 3-30 p.m. during the month of Ramzan.

The university was closed sine die and the students were asked to vacate their dormitories on February 25 after an armed clash between two student groups. The clash had claimed the life of one student.