DU teachers, students urged
to join classes

By Our DU Correspondent

Dhaka University Teachers Association(DUTA) and All-Party students unity (APSU) called upon the teachers and students of Dhaka University to attend their classes today (Sunday) by wearing black badges.

The DUTA and APSU gave the call in protest against the government order to close down the university for an indefinite period and promulgation of the Educational Institutions (Law and Order) Ordinance '90.
