

78

✓

DU to reopen within 7 days

Varsity Correspondent

Prof. Maniruzzaman Miah, the newly-appointed Vice-Chancellor of Dhaka University on Saturday said that the university would be reopened within seven days.

The Vice-Chancellor was talking to this correspondent at his office on the day. Earlier he took over the charge formally from the former Vice-Chancellor Prof. Abdul Mannan.

The Vice-Chancellor said he would call the Syndicate meeting soon to take decision regarding the reopening of the university. "I will try my best to reopen the university as soon as possible", Prof. Maniruzzaman added. He said that after reopening all the postponed examinations would be held within shortest possible time. He also expressed his hope to take effective measures to revive the Senate of the university for restoration of 'rule of law' in the university.