DU classes resume today situation tense

By Our DU Correspondent.

Tension gripped the Dhaka University afresh Monday on the eve of reopening the university, after a 47-day long unscheduled vacation.

Classes of the university resume today (Tuesday) fourteen students dormitories of the university were reopened Monday, but the number of resident students was negligible in the dormitories.

Two factions of Chhatra League (A-A) clashed with each other at Madhu's canteen at about 11 am.

The law enforcing agency personnel was to have been deployed on the campus to ensure peace. But no police or BDR personnel were deployed on the campus.

The university authorities at a meeting of the Dhaka University Education Environment Council (DUEEC) on Saturday opined that the university is not yet violence free and the authorities had failed to take any effective measure to ensure peace on the campus.

Earlier, Jatiyatabadi Chhatra Dal (JCD) DU unit brought out a procession and held a rally on the eve of reopening of the university.

The rally organised in front of Dhaka University Madhu's Canteen was addressed by JCD leader Ilias Ali and Ali Akkas Nadim.

Speakers at the rally called upon the leaders of different students front and the students to resist terrorism on the campus.
