

DU halls reopen

By A Staff Reporter

Residential halls of Dhaka University reopened at 10 a.m. today (Monday) following a 47-day unscheduled closure since July 30.

All the classes of the university is scheduled to resume tomorrow (Tuesday) after a 48-days unscheduled closure following a bloody clash between supporters of two rival student organisations.

Contd. on page 8 col. 7

DU halls reopen

Contd from page 1

At least five Dhaka University students received bullet injury in a 3-hour long gun battle between activists of Bangladesh Chhatra League (A-A) and Jatiyatabadi Chhatra Dal (JCD) on July 30.