DU halls to remain vacant in Eid holidays

BY Our DU Correspondent

A joint meeting of Dhaka University authorities with the leaders of student organisations Saturday decided to keep all residential halls vacant during the coming Eid vacation.

They also decided that every resident student would present their identity card to entry into their respective halls after the vacation.

cellor Prof Maniruzzaman Mian, the meeting reviewed overall situation of university.

In a resolution different organisation leaders reiterated their determination to keep the campus arms and violence free.

The University authorities arranged the meeting after an arms clash between two student organisations on Thursday last at Jagnath Hall premises.
