Arms recovered from 2 DU halls

Varsity Correspondent

Police conducted raid on two residential halls of Dhaka University and recovered a loaded pistol, thirteen bullet chargers and a motor cycle on Saturday.

A large contingent of police cordoned off Ziaur Rahman and Bangabandhu Halls and searched some rooms.

During the raid police recovered those arms and ammunition from Ziaur Rahman Hall.

None, however, was arrested in this connection, a Police Press release said.

Jafar, a student of Dhaka University was beaten on Saturday near Bangla Academy.

A group of youths attacked Jafar suspecting him to be member of Islami Chhatra Shibir near Bangla Academy.

Jafar, a resident of Jasimuddin Hall, received injury in head and nose.

Habibun Nabi Sohel and Ali Akkas Nadim in a joint statement on Saturday condemned the attack on Jafar mentioning him as a JCD leader.

They said a section of workers of some student organisations launched attack on JCD members suspecting them as Shibir activists. He called upon those workers to refrain themselves from such kind of attack.

Idris killing caused panic

Meanwhile, the killing of Idris Ali, a school boy, caused panic among the general student of Ziaur Rahman Hall on Saturday.

Some residents of Ziaur Rahman Hall found Idris Ali, a student of T&T School, lying stained with bullet wounds near the hall ground on Friday evening. He succumbed to his injury at DMCH on the day.
