Communal harmony rally at DU held

By Our DU Correspondent

Several thousand students, teachers and employees of Dhaka University Sunday brought out a peace procession with a call to maintain peace, discipline and communal harmony in view of the historic Babri mosque demolition and communal riots in India.

The procession led by Prof.

Emazuddin Ahmed, Vice-Chancellor of the university, while leaders of the university teachers and officers' association and DUCSU leaders also attended the procession.

The procession paraded different areas of the campus.

The university offices and classes were closed between 11am and 12 noon to facilitate the teachers, students and employees in joining the procession.

Later, the processionists held a rally at the foot of Aparajeyo Bangla after the procession. Prof. Emazuddin Ahmed said, Bangladesh has a long heritage of communal harmony. He urged all to put in their best efforts to maintain peace and harmony at all cost.
