DUV-C opens Senate meet

Varsity Correspondent.

Dhaka University V-C Prof Ema-zuddin Ahmed on Wednesday stressed the need for a consensus among the political parties to eliminate violence from the campus and said that the University authorities have no control to check the overall terrorism.

Addressing the annual Senate meeting of the University, Prof. Emazuddin Ahmed who is also the Chairman of Senate said: "Terrorism could not be eliminated until a political awareness is created in the political circle and the country's socio-economic and political situation is changed."

In his speech Prof. Emazuddin

Ahmed said that the university was closed for ten days and three persons including two students were killed due to the violent activities during 1992-93.

He said that the academic activities were conducted amid various odds and problems and different steps were taken by the university authorities to make the academic activity more dynamic.

"We want to draw the attention of students to academic activities and in this respect we take initiative to formulate academic calender for First Year (Honours) and Masters First Part classes with a view to
