DU students hold rally against budget

Pro-Awami League Chhatra League and Ganotantrik Chhatra Oikya (GCO) on Saturday held separate rallies on the Dhaka University campus and criticised the government for placing the budget in absence of the Opposition political parties, reports UNB.

Held in front of Arts Faculty Building on Saturday morning, the pro-Awami League Chhatra League rally was addressed by BCL President Mainuddin Hasan Chowdhury, General Secretary Iqbalur Rahim and university unit President KHM Lizu.

The BCL leaders termed the proposed budget (1994-95 fiscal) as "BNP affairs", and said that the budget had no guideline to resolve the existing economic problems.

The GCO held another anti-budget rally at the same venue and condemned the government for placing the budget in absence of the opposition. The rally was addressed by Kazi Sazzad Zahir Chandan, Ruhul Quddus Babu and Belal Chowdhury.
