DU VC kept hostage for 90 minutes

A group of unruly students of Dhaka University Monday ransacked some window panes of Arts Faculty building demanding shifting of MA examination scheduled to begin from May 15, reports UNB.

The rampaging students numbering about 15 brought out an angry procession on the campus and ransacked the window panes of the faculty at about 11:30 am. They also blasted at least four cocktails.

Panicked students, including freshers, ran helter-skelter for safety, witnesses said.

Later, they staged a sit-in in front of VC office and pelted stones and gheraoed his residence in the afternoon keeping him hostage for about 90 minutes.
