DU Syndicate polls

White, Blue panels share seats

White and Blue panels shared seats in the election of Dhaka University Syndicate, Academic Council and Finance Committee, held Sunday, reports UNB.

The two panels bagged three seats each out of the six teachers' representatives in the 17-member Syndicate, the highest policy-making body of the university.

The Pink panel which also contested the elections failed to secure any seat.

In the Academic Council, the Blue panel bagged four while the white panel captured two out of the six elected teachers' representatives from the associate professor and assistant professor/lecturer categories.
