

76

DU classes resume

Classes of Dhaka University resumed on Tuesday after a 10-day Eid vacation with few students attending as holiday mood lingered on the campus, reports UNB.

Attendances were very slim as few students returned to their dormitories. The University campus and central library gave a deserted look.

Those residents who returned to their respective halls said they were facing problems as dining halls and canteens are still closed. They are forced to go to nearby hotels to have their meals.