DUCSU slates plan to impose ban on student politics

By A Staff Reporter

Dhaka University Central Students' Union (DUCSU) and Dhaka Medical College Students' Union (DMCSU) in separate statements to the press on Friday condemned the decision of imposing ban on student politics in Dhaka Medical College campus for an indefinite period and urged the concerned authorities to open the college.

DUCSU Vice-President Amanullah Aman and General Secretary Khairul Kabir Khokan in their joint statement expressed strong resentment at the decision of imposing ban on student politics in Dhaka Medical College campus and said "meritorious students of Dhaka Medical College have a glorious contribution to the fight against all irregularities and anti-autocratic movements. But the new government is hatching conspiracy to impose ban on student politics in the country." For this reason, Chhatra League (S-P) Awami

League's student wing has been resorting to terrorist activities in the campus of educational institutions across the country, DUCSU leaders alleged.

DUCSU leaders urged the government to refrain from this sort of game and demanded exemplary punishment of the Chhatra League (S-P) cadres responsible for the terrorist activities.

They also demanded immediate announcement of schedule for DMC Students' Union election.

Dhaka Medical College Students' Union (DMCSU) Vice-President Tawhidul Islam Tuhin, General Secretary Nuzzaman Khan Khosru and other office-bearers in their joint statement strongly condemned the decision of imposing ban on student politics in their college campus.

In the statement they alleged that Chhatra League (S-P) had resorted to terrorist activities on July 10 last in the campus to foil the forthcoming DMCSU election.
