Police caught two youngmen red-handed with a cut rifle from Zahirul Haq Hall of Dhaka University on Monday noon.

Two policemen who were on duty inside the hall caught Muhammad Amin and Manjurul Islam Pavel with the firearms while they were moving at the hall gate.

Police while talking to the Bangladesh Observer said both Amin and Pavel were outsiders and they arrested them when they were guarding the hall gate with the arms.

Muhammad Amin is a second year student of Management Department of Jagannath College. Police however failed to give the identity of Manjurul Islam Pavel.
