Rift in White panel DU Senate polls today

The election of 35 teacher-representatives of the Dhaka University Senate will be held today, Thursday, reports UNB.

Three panels, known as pro-Awami League "Blue", BNP-backed "White", and left-leaning "Pink", are participating in the election.

The 105-member Senate, one of the powerful bodies of the university, plays an important role in academic and extra-academic activities.

The election will be held at the university's Teacher-Students' Centre (TSC) from 9 am to 1 pm without any break. DU Treasurer Prof Shamsul Haq will conduct the polls.

Meanwhile, campus sources said, conflict erupted in the selection of 35 candidates for the White panel which was earlier finalised at a general meeting.

Pro-Jamaat teachers allegedly struck off the names of six pro-BNP teachers from the final list and replaced those by six pro-Jamaat teachers.

On Sunday, some leaders of White panel in a written statement submitted to the DU Registrar urged the authorities concerned to take necessary action against the six pro-Jamaat teachers.
