In a statement the teachers said although late, the decision of the Dhaka University was appreciable as Sheikh Hasina already received five Honorary Doctorate degrees from the universities of Boston (U.S.A.), Waseda (Japan), Aparte-Dandy (U.K.), Bishwabharati (India) and Luven (Belgium).

Moreover, the statement said, the historic role of Sheikh Hasina in restoring peace in Chittagong Hill Tracts after a long bloodshed got worldwide recognition and appreciation.

"In this context, they said, as a recognition of her outstanding contribution to the establishment of peace and democracy in the national, regional and international arena, alleviating poverty, expanding education and empowerment of women, the decision to confer the degree to the Prime Minister is correct and timely."
