Pro-Awami League student organisation Bangla-desh Chhatra League (BCL) brought out a procession and held a rally on the Dhaka University campus on Sunday protesting to-day's hartal.

Speakers at the BCL rally blamed the oppositions for anarchy in the country.

They called upon the countrymen to resist the issueless hartals called by the oppositions.

The rally, held at the Aparajeyo Bangla, was presided over by BCL Pre-sident Bahadur Bepary while it was addressed, among others, by BCL General Secretary Ajay Kar Khokon, Gazi Mesbaul Hossain, Sachchu, Shahjahan Alam Saju, Sujit Roy Nondi, Sajjad Hossain, AKM Azim and Prashanta Barua.

Earlier, BCL brought out a procession and marched through the DU campus and its adjoining areas.

Meanwhile, JCD held a separate rally on the TSC premises at noon.

The rally was addressed, among others, by Monzur-e-Elahi, Monir Hossain, Sultan Saluddin Tuku, Mos-tafizul Islam Mamun and Asaduzzaman Asad.

"The overall law and order situation prevailing across the country proves the failure of the government and it forces the oppositions to call hartal", said the JCD leaders.

During the day-long hartal the DU campus was mainly remained calm. No untoward incident was reported.

Classes were not held in any department.
