Book exhibition at DU begins today

A two-day "Book Exhibition" begins at Dhaka University on Saturday to make popular books and articles written by faculties and other scholars of the university among the students and concerned persons, reports BSS.

Vice-chancellor Prof. AK Azad Chowdhury is expected to inaugurate the exhibition at TSC premises.

Pro-Vice Chancellor Prof. Shahadat Ali disclosed this at a Press conference at the Senate Room on Thursday afternoon.

He said a total of 1222 books by 238 teachers and scholars and 42 international journals, of them 23 in English and 19 in Bengali, where research articles of the DU Scholars were published, would be presented in the book exhibition.

"No book or Journal will be sold in the exhibition like 1994 exhibition," Prof. Ali said.

Among others, Prof. Anisuzzaman and Registrar of the University Muhammad Selim were present at the Press conference.
