

তারিখ ... MAR. 12, 1999 ...
পঞ্জি দু কলাম ...

550

Jubilee of Fine Arts begins today

Staff Correspondent

The Dhaka University Fine Arts Institute will celebrate its 50th founding anniversary through holding various colourful and attractive programmes beginning from today (Friday) at its premises.

The inaugural function of the celebration will be held at 9-30 a.m. today (Friday) at the institute. The Vice-Chancellor of Dhaka University Prof A.K. Azad Chowdhury will be present there as chief guest while the celebration programmes will be formally inaugurated by artist Safiuddin Ahmed, artist Shafiqul Amin, architect Mazharul Islam and poet Shamsur Rahman jointly.

On the occasion an exhibition of various painting works and other important works of artists of different departments of the institute will be inaugurated at 11 a.m. today (Friday) at the institute gallery. The exhibition will remain open to the visitors everyday from 10 a.m. to 7-30 p.m. till May 6.

Besides, cultural function will be held everyday at 6.30 p.m. till March 16 at the institute premises on the occasion. Different seminars will also be organised at 4 p.m. everyday from March 17 to April 21 at the institute auditorium in observance of its 50th founding anniversary.