DU V-C thanks people

Vice-Chancellor of Dhaka University Prof. A.K. Azad Chowdhury on Monday expressed his deep gratitude to the people for observing the Eku-shey February in a somber atmosphere and maintaining discipline at the Central Shaheed Minar, says BSS.

The Vice-Chancellor, in a statement, on Monday said "It's a significant event for our national life as the honourable President, the Prime Minister, the Speaker, members of the Cabinet, the leader of the Opposition, heroes of the Language Movement, Mayor of Dhaka, leaders of political parties and hundreds of thousands of people paid their homage to the Language martyrs and placed wreaths peacefully at the Shaheed Minar."

He particularly conveyed his thanks to all the political parties, student organisations, social, cultural and professional bodies, juvenile organisations and the students of different schools, colleges and universities for their cooperation in maintaining discipline at the Shaheed Minar.
