Hashem takes over as DU Treasurer

Professor Abul Hashem, Dean of Business Studies Faculty, took over the charge of the office of Treasurer of Dhaka University (DU), reports BSS.

A DU Press release said in Dhaka on Monday that prior to his joining the present position, he was the Chairman of Accounting Department of the university.

Apart from his academic and research career, Prof. Hashem has a long management career at the University. He was Provost of Haji Muhammad Moshin Hall and Treasurer of Dhaka University Teachers' Association. He was also elected DU Senate Member twice.

Prof Hashem pursued his research work at Suffolk University of the United States as a senior Fulbright Scholar for 1998-99 session.

He was involved in various public activities and was a member of Bangladesh Development Strategies formed in 1990 under the Interim Government headed by Justice Shahabuddin Ahmed. He was also the Director of Bangladesh Shilpa Bank between 1996 and 1998, the Press release said.
