Memorial plaque unveiled at DU Jagannath Hall

By DU Correspondent

A memorial plaque constructed at the Jagannath Hall of Dhaka University after the name of Joyduip Datt Choudhury Bappi, a leader of Bangladesh Chhatra League (BCL) was unveiled yesterday.

Bappi, a Masters degree student of the Department of Mass Communication and Journalism of the university was gunned down at Jagannath Hall on January 21, '95 following an intra-party feud in the ruling party backed student organisation Bangladesh Chhatra League.

On the occasion, BCL organised a rally at the hall which was addressed among others by its president Bahadur Bepari and general secretary Ajay Kar, Khokon and leaders, Balaram Podder, Sujit Ray Nondi, Sajjad Hossain and AKM Ajim.

At the rally, the BCL leaders condemned for the murder and demanded exemplary punishment to those responsible for the killing.
