

2210221980
2210221980

223

Pledge to make DU terrorism free

Dhaka University Senate representatives of registered graduates elected from Ganotantrik Oikya Parishad (GOP) reiterated their pledge to make the university free from violence and terrorism, reports BSS.

The 25 senators who have been elected recently to represent thousands of 'registered graduates' in the DU senate, also observed that the voters had elected them as the GOP in the past played a constructive role in to maintain congenial educational atmosphere on the campus.

The senators said this at a get together on Monday at the TSC of the university which was arranged to thank the registered graduates for electing the entire GOP panel in the DU senate election.

Presided over Advocate Syed Ahmed it was addressed, among others, by Prof. Shamsul Huda Harun, Sontosh Gupta, Swapan Kumar Saha, Ohiduzzaman Chan, Advocate Shahara Khatun, Prof. Sultana Shafi, Monayem Sarker, Mahbub Uddin Ahmed Bir Bikram, Aroma Goom, Sirajul Huq Farazi and Afzal Hossain. The function was rounded off with a musical soiree.