

তাৰিখ ০৭ SEP-1996
পৃষ্ঠা ২২ কলাম ২

Primary school occupied by rice traders?

From Our Correspondent

JHENIDAH, Sept. 8.—The students of Kamta Government Primary School under Jhenidah sadar thana are compelled to attend their classes in a dilapidated building which may collapse at any time although a new building was constructed.

The newly constructed building of the school is being occupied by a section of rice traders to run their business in cooperation with the school managing committee and teaching staff. The students of the school are compelled to use the old building as their classrooms.

The Facilities Department of the Ministry of Education constructed the building at a cost of Taka five lakh for the school.

The local people urged upon the authorities concerned to recover the school building from the illegal occupants.

2 Jubo Dal leaders held

Two Jatiyatabadi Jubo Dal leaders were arrested by the police from the town recently. They are Mr. Nazrul Islam, secretary of district Jatiyatabadi Jubo Dal and Mr. Nasirul Islam an activist of the Dal.

According to police they were arrested for their alleged involvement in crimes like extortion of money, clash and terrorism.

They were wanted by police in connection with many cases filed against them, police said.

Our Mymensingh Correspondent adds: A non-formal primary school styled as Kishore-Kishori Shiksha Kendra organised by Gana Sahajya Sangstha was inaugurated at village Mirka under Bhaluka thana of Mymensingh district recently.

The inaugural function were presided over by journalist Shah Muhammad Akram Hossain and it was attended by Bikash Chandra Ghatak, Field Supervisor of Gana Sahajya Sangstha as the chief guest.