

১/১২/৬০

তারিখ...
সংখ্যা... কলাম...

The Present Education of Bangladesh

J. Ahamed

The present Education Universities. But their parents' expectation is more often than not, met with frustration. Now a day even the result of CHANDPUR: The erosion of the Meghna is going on unabated at Hainchar the groups. Police arrested three persons from the town for their alleged involvement in the clash. Meanwhile, a tense situation has been prevailing in the area and the inter-district bus services remain suspended.

AL, BNP clash in Sirajganj, 9 injured

SIRAJGANJ, Sept 4.—Nine people were injured in a clash between supporters of BNP and Awami League at Kazipur Upazila headquarters this morning, reports UNB.

Locals said scuffles broke out between the rival groups over the pasting of a poster of an Awami League on the poster of a BNP candidate.

Centering the issue, the two groups brought out processions and clashed in the town at about 11.30am. Both the groups blasted handmade bombs leaving nine people injured.

Police intervened and brought the situation under control.

ing knowledge and opening of new horizons of knowledge, while at the same time develop-witnesses alleged. He was wounded fatally. Hossain Tuku, vice president of district AL, was admitted to hospital. Police said a number of agitated workers from the district Chhatra League went on a rampage and set a number of vehicles in the Bazar area last night and set out a series of protest demonstrations demanding the resignation of their leader Babul Saha.

2 BNP activists injured

NB from Munshiganj adds: BNP workers were critically injured in an attack allegedly by Awami League activists at Munshirhat in the district on Friday.

Witnesses said some Awami League activists stabbed Charwar union BNP vice-president run Member when they set to Munshirhat bazar. Later, BNP supporters brought it a procession in the town protesting the attack and ransacked a house belonging to AL activist Ashem Bepari at Mathpara in the town.

reasoning and creative and independent thinking. Fully society oriented, that