

NU VC removal
RU omits Edn
Adviser's name
as chief guest

Our Correspondent

RAJSHAHI, Sept. 10:—The authorities of Rajshahi University (RU) in a sudden decision has withdrawn the name of the Education Adviser of the Caretaker Government from the list of the dignitaries of a function in which he was invited as the chief guest.

Campus sources said the authorities of RU had arranged the Agrani Bank Gold Medal and other awards distribution ceremony for the successful students at the Senate Bhaban of RU this morning. The Education Adviser of the Caretaker Government ASM Shahjahan was invited to attend but the RU authorities, through an emergency message informed the Education Adviser yesterday that he was no more needed to attend the function. The RU authorities took the decision as a protest against the removal of the Vice-Chancellor.

It is learnt that on hearing news of removal of National University VC Dr Durga Das Vattacharya from his post and appointment of Professor A Momin Chowdhury in that post, the teachers group of RU got locked. The left parties and Awami League supporters went to the RU VC Professor Sayeedur Rahman Khan and requested him to withdraw the name of the Education Adviser as the chief guest of the function scheduled for this morning and the RU VC is learnt to have sent an emergency message.