

BCL, JCD clash in Dhaka College: car set ablaze

Varsity Correspondent

Agitated students of Dhaka College set ablaze a car and damaged at least 10 other vehicles in front of the college on Sunday noon.

Witnesses said the students came out to the street following a chase and counter chase between the activists of Bangladesh Chhatra League (BCL) and Jatiyatabadi Chhatra Dal (JCD) inside the college campus and went on rampage.

Sources in the college said the trouble erupted when a faction of JCD chased another faction, which was declared persona non grata by the other factions.

As a gunshot was fired from the procession of a JCD faction, the BCL activists chased both the factions out of the campus. Later all the feuding groups came to the street and attacked the vehicles.
