

Shibir activist assaults CU asst proctor

CU CORRESPONDENT

An activist of Islami Chhatra Shibir (ICS) assaulted an assistant proctor of Chittagong University (CU) in front of the Proctor Office yesterday.

Mentionable, some activists of the ICS also manhandled Proctor Prof. Dr. Jasim Uddin on Wednesday at CU Railway Station premise centring a trifling matter.

Sources said Maksudur Rahman, second year student of Bengla department of the university and also a activist of ICS, was overhearing a meeting between activists of Bangladesh Chhatra League (BCL) and the proctorial body at the Proctor Office at around 12.30pm yesterday.

Assistant Proctor Mohammad Alam Chowdhury notice Maksudur and asked his identity. In reply, Maksudur said he is not student of the university and looking for his younger brother.

When Alam Chowdhury asked Maksudur to talk to him inside the Proctor Office, Maksudur caught hold collar and punched him, said the sources.

Another teachers and member of the proctorial body rushed to the spot and caught him.

During the scuffle, a group of the shibir activist tried to take away Maksudur from the custody of the teachers.

Later, proctors seized Maksudur's identity card and released him.

When contacted Alam Chowdhury, also a lecturer of Political Science department, admitted the incident and said he informed it to the leaders of CU Teachers' Association and dean of Social Science Faculty.

Sources said an emergency meeting of the CU Syndicate would be held at 11.00am today for taking next course of action regarding yesterday's incident and other