

Ctg varsity expels 8 BCL cadres

CHITTAGONG, Mar 19:- Eight cadres of BCL, the student wing of ruling Awami League, were today expelled for one year from the Chittagong University for their unruly activities, reports UN. The students expelled are Rashedul Hannan, Faizle Rabbi, Sarwarul Islam, Rakib Hasan, Zahedul Islam, Asperul Haq, Ahsan Siddiqi and Iftekharul Haider.

The university authority has asked them and 12 other BCL cadres to show cause within seven days to explain why further stringent action would not be taken against them, said the university sources.

The action was taken upon report of an inquiry committee comprising proctors of the university.

The committee inquired into Wednesday's clash between rival groups of BCL at the university railway station yard. Seven cadres were wounded by knife, three of them admitted to the hospital.

Sources said the action against the unruly students was also based on information provided by the law enforcing agencies, complaints lodged by the wounded students and video footage of the incident.
