

211 seats still vacant in BAU

Waiting admission
Dec 23

BAU Correspondent

AT LEAST 211 seats, out of 1200, are still vacant at different departments of Bangladesh Agricultural University in Mymensingh after the admission of merit list candidates for the first year honours course under 2015-16 academic session.

The vacant seats would be filled up with students from the waiting list and admission from the waiting list would be held on December 23, said a university press release. A total of 184 seats were vacant for general students and the rest were vacant for quotas.

Waiting list students were requested to report at Shilpacharya Zoinul Abedin Auditorium on the campus within 10:00am to 04:00pm December 22.

Detail information regarding the admission would be available on BAU website at www.admission.bau.edu.bd.