A PRIMARY school headmaster was stabbed to death by some miscreants following previous enmity at Manash village in Barhatta upazila on Wednesday.

The deceased was identified as Arjun Chandra Sinha, 42, headmaster of Manash Government Primary School.

Salemuzzaman, officer-in-charge of Barhatta Police Station, said Arjun Chandra had an enmity with Abul Kashem, a member of Asma union parishad, over formation of the school managing committee.

Some miscreants swooped on Arjun and stabbed him indiscriminately while he was going to school around 10:00am, leaving him dead on the spot, he said quoting witnesses.

On information, police recovered the body and sent it to local hospital morgue for autopsy.

However, police arrested a man named Babu in connection with the murder.
