DHAKA University on Wednesday celebrated the 94th founding anniversary amid enthusiasm and festivity.

The theme of this year was 'higher education and sustainable development'.

Exhibition, cultural session, sports, sports and debate competition were arranged marking the day.

Prime minister's foreign affairs adviser Gowher Rizvi inaugurated the daylong programme by hoisting the national flag at Mal Chhatar on the campus.

Teachers and students from different halls gathered at the venue with processions around 10:00am.

A colourful procession, led by vice-chancellor AAMS Arefin Siddique, paraded different points on the campus and ended at TSC.

Later, they held a seminar at TSC auditorium.

AAMS Arefin Siddique chaired the seminar where Gowher Rizvi, pro-vice-chancellor Nasrin Ahmed (education) and Shaid Akhter Hossain (administration) and others spoke.

Education ministry secretary Md Nazrul Islam presented the keynote paper.

Gowher Rizvi said the quality of higher education should be enhanced to build a developed country.
