Islamic Varsity closed for a week

KUSHTIA, Nov 25: Islamic University was today closed for a week after two rival groups of students clashed on the campus, leaving about a dozen injured, three seriously, reports UNB.

Amjad (22) was sent to capital Dhaka with serious eye injury. Another student of the university, Akhtaruzzaman (23), and Nukur Hossain (25), an outsider, were rushed to the Sadar hospital.

The clash erupted when Islami Chhatra Shibir allegedly tried to show its strength on the campus and Chhatra League, Chhatra Moitry and other student organisations went for resistance, campus sources said. Police fired 7 tear shells to disperse the students on rampage.
