

Book Club to observe Book Day Feb 1

Staff Correspondent

Bangladesh Book Club (BBC) will organise a meeting and procession in the city on February 1 in observance of the Book Day.

Minister for Women and Children Affairs Begum Khurshid Jahan Haque will inaugurate the programme as chief guest at the Central Shaheed Minar at 9.30 a.m. Literary personality Dr Ashraf Siddiqui will attend it as special guest, says a Press release.

The theme of this year's Book Day is education is the right for both men and women.

BBC has taken up different programmes to grow reading habits among the people.

The procession will start from the Central Shaheed Minar and will end in front of the National Press Club after parading different thoroughfares in the city.
