

DU to observe Interreligious Harmony Day

Dr. SMA Faiz, the Vice-Chancellor of Dhaka University has accepted in principal the proposal of the Chairman of the Department of World Religions regarding the celebration of Interreligious Harmony Day by the University of Dhaka. He has asked the Department of World Religions to come forward with a formal proposal along with a specific date. The Vice-Chancellor was speaking as the chief guest at the 'Freshers' Reception of the Dept. of World Religions held Tuesday at the Nat Mandol of DU, says a Press release.

Professor Kazi Shahidullah Dean of the Faculty of Arts and Dr. Joseph T O'Connell Professor Emeritus of Toronto University and presently visiting Professor of the Department of World Religions spoke on the occasion as special guests.

Among others Prof Gervas Rozario, Prof. Habibur Rahman Chowdhury, Prof M Mobasher Ali, Ms Fazrin Huda and Mrs Eva Sadia Saad spoke on the occasion.

Dr Kazi Nurul Islam, Prof and Chairman of the Dept. of World Religions presided over the function, which was followed by a cultural programme performed by the students of the Department.