Minister Begum Khaleda Zia for materialising longstanding demand of the Barisal division.

They invited the President on behalf of all the students organisations to attend as chief guest the centenary celebration of the college in later part of the year.

President Biswas expressed his happiness that all students, irrespective of political opinions, have united themselves to regain the lost glory of this old and traditional educational institution of Barisal and maintain peace in the academic life.

He hoped that the creation of Barisal division will inspire the people to work unitedly for the development of the area as well as the country.
